Dear Parents and Carers,

I am pleased to write to you following our Ofsted inspection this week to share a few thoughts and, most importantly, to say a huge thank you to our school community.

The inspection process was incredibly thorough and rigorous. The new Ofsted Framework sets very high expectations for schools, and our three inspectors spent the two days carefully scrutinising all aspects of school life. They took the time to look closely at our provision, speak to staff and pupils, visit lessons and explore the many opportunities and experiences we provide for our children.

Overall, it was a fair and positive experience, and I am incredibly proud of the way our school community came together throughout the process.

Firstly, I want to say an enormous thank you to our incredible staff team. Their commitment, professionalism, flexibility and hard work, both during the two days of inspection and in the weeks and months leading up to it, have been outstanding. The inspection provided an opportunity to demonstrate the dedication, care and expertise that goes into making Robin Hood Junior School the special place it is. I could not be prouder of them.

Secondly, thank you to our parent community. We were so grateful for the overwhelmingly positive responses to Ofsted's parent survey and for those of you who took the time to speak directly to inspectors at the school gates. Your kind words, support and recognition of the work we do mean a great deal to us. It was wonderful to hear our school spoken about so positively by the families who know it best.

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, a huge thank you to our brilliant children. They were fantastic throughout the inspection. They confidently showcased their learning, spoke enthusiastically about their experiences and showed just how much they enjoy being part of Robin Hood Junior School. They were a real credit to themselves, their families and our school.

The full Ofsted report will not be available for publication until after the Christmas holidays. As soon as we are able to share the outcome, we will let you know.

In the meantime, I hope you will join me in recognising what a wonderful school community we have. An inspection is just one snapshot of school life, but the commitment, kindness, ambition and enthusiasm shown by our staff, children and families are evident every single day.

Thank you once again for your continued support. We can all be incredibly proud to be part of Robin Hood Junior School.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Webster
